September Program: Lyn Morrow

Submitted by Eoline Killough, Vice President

You may remember a turquoise and cobalt colored house five miles north of Pittsboro on US 15-501, the studio and gallery of Lyn Morrow. Lyn is a North Carolina potter with a regional as well as international reputation for her superb, distinctive pottery. Her award-winning work has been featured in museums, galleries and corporate collections around the world.

Lyn's background and experience also extend from the regional to the international. A graduate of Atlantic Christian College, she majored in ceramics and sculpture, then went on to study sculpture, fresco and art history at the Academia di Belle Arte in Perugia, Italy, for a year. Lyn's MFA is from UNC Greensboro.

"Pottery is a constant source of learning and transition for me and when I look back at my work I see recurring themes. It may be a shape, sculptural form or a glaze that holds my interest. I take that element and run with it ... push it to its limits. Some forms and glazes are old friends, others quite a challenge. Both have a place in my studio."

The Triangle Potters Guild is fortunate in welcoming Lyn Morrow for what promises to be a stimulating and intriguing program on September 3.

Minutes from May

The May meeting was held at Eoline's house and took the form of a pot-luck party. A sudden thunderstorm and gigantic hailstones prevented us from gathering in the garden as had been planned, but there was plenty of room for a festive gathering indoors. Most people had brought things for a gift exchange and, since many of these turned out to be pots, we had the pleasure of tracking down the makers. Members voted to approve the slate of officers for 2013–14: Nancy Schecter, president; Eoline Killough, vice president; Maureen McGregor, recording secretary; Susanne Uno, corresponding secretary; Kathy Rodgers, treasurer; and Edge Barnes, librarian. Thank you to Eoline for an enjoyable ending to our Guild year!

From Susan Luster: Items for Sale

For Sale: Brent Model C wheel. I bought this wheel in the late 1990s, used it a few years, and then fell in love with the slab roller. It has literally been stored under my slab roller for about 10 years. It's in very good shape. This wheel sells new for $1150-$1300. Best offer. Contact Susan Luster, susisolar@aol.com or 919-469-4902.

For Sale: E-Z Up tent—well used, $20. I have two and would like someone else to have the second one. Contact Susan Luster, susisolar@aol.com or 919-469-4902.
