Two new items will be added to the TPG Library soon:

DVD 2 disc set "In The Studio with Randy Johnston and Jan McKeachie Johnston"

Book - Image & Design Transfer Techniques

They will be on the shelves sometime after Thanksgiving!

Empty Bowls Fund Raiser: from Nancy Schecter

Thanks to everyone who donated for Empty Bowls, and volunteered to help with Stone Soup! John Welch has sent TPG profuse thanks on behalf of Urban Ministries. He said with our help they did the best ever, though I don't have numbers yet. We basically covered three months of expenses for all the wonderful things that UM does for needy families in Wake County.

The Highwater Clay gift certificate drawing will take place during the January meeting. At that meeting I will also share some ideas I have to keep up the momentum. Have a wonderful holiday and thanks again to everyone!

Special Requests and Other News

From Fay Krapf

The TPG potters who participated in the state fair space received the checks this week from our sales. Fair sales were up from last year, and hopefully folks who participated were pleased with their sales. It was wonderful having so many of the TPG potters exhibiting in the show. It added a wonderful diversity to the pottery in the tent and was much appreciated by customers.
