TRIANGLE POTTERS GUILD

LAST ISSUE OF CLAY NOTES

FROM OUR PRESIDENT

Thank you all for making my first year as president of TPG a success. Just after taking over the position we were asked to restart our role in support of Stone Soup. Jim Bell took leadership of this project with little notice or organizational knowledge and turn it into a great success and they were very pleased. We will be looking for volunteers to make this fundraiser happen again in November 2024. Watch for further information.

In November and March we had wonderful sales at the NC State Farmers Market headed up by Margo Daub. Conrad Weiser hosted our annual holiday party where we shared laughter, history, and a gift exchange. Artsplosure is fast approaching. Many of our members will be selling under the TPG tent or volunteering time demonstrating as part of our community outreach. Remember another opportunity for sales is available to us at the NC State Fair.

A big thank you goes out to Jet Schmidt for insuring that quality presentations happen at the monthly meetings. Thank you also to our board members for keeping me on track. We will be filling the following vacating positions: Recording Secretary, Treasurer, and Name Tags.

We will be wrapping this current year with a potluck picnic at Pullen Park on Tuesday, May 7 at 6pm. Note this is earlier than our regular meeting time. Please bring a dish to share. We will supply paper products, chicken and pulled pork. I'm looking forward to seeing examples of your work. We ask that you bring 1 or 2 pieces of your work and business cards or contact information.

See you there,
JT Hennes

WHAT'S COMING UP ...

*Artsplosure is around the corner! The dates you should remember are May 18th and 19th.

We'll have our final meeting for the 2023-2024 year this Tuesday May 7th @6pm at Pullen Park. It'll be a potluck, so we ask our members to please bring a delicious dish to share. There will not be presenters this month, but we're excited for you to bring your pieces, show them to all the members, and tell us what makes them special.

Finally, we encourage you to keep in touch with us during the summer!, if you need to sell equipment, advertise your work through our social media, or have any other interesting ceramics related things going on, please let us know! We'll be happy to communicate all this to all our members and followers.
