Sharon Greenwood is a full-time potter living in Portland, Oregon. She grew up outside of New Orleans and received her BFA from the University of Southern Mississippi in Graphic Design, with a minor in Sculpture. She loved working in clay and took every ceramics class she could until she graduated. And then she put clay away for 15 years to focus on an advertising career.

In 2010, she took a 2-month sabbatical and enrolled in a local pottery class. When the class ended, she quit her advertising job and turned her garage into a fully functioning studio. For several years she continued to take classes & workshops to learn what she enjoyed doing the most – carving!

She has been carving for the past 9 years and her process continues to evolve. Currently, she creates a flowing canvas by throwing and altering mid-range porcelain. Her carving pattern is then layered, creating even more movement. Her inspiration comes from the beautiful Oregon coast and her garden. She started selling in 2015, first at regional art festivals, then galleries and now her functional work can be found on Etsy.

Minutes from March 2021

Present: Lauren Brockman, Donna Horton, Jay Levine, Joanne Wood, Elizabeth Reynolds

1- The Board discussed items again discussed the nominating committee, and potential members to recruit for the committee. Volunteers will be requested during the business meeting.

2- The board discussed some confusion about how members are added to the listserv.

Do we need to collect phone numbers of members? In addition, some confusing aspects of the web site were discussed to ensure we don't confuse prospective members.

Need to figure out who has the Guild web site login.

3- The board discussed membership fees. If people join after April, we will delay requesting dues until the next year, in September.

4- It is unclear who is responsible for keeping up the Google web sheet and listserv.

Triangle Potters Guild Meeting

2 March 2021

1-A nominating committee is needed. The president, vice-president and corresponding secretary positions need to be filled. We need three people for the nominating committee to propose a slate to fill the positions.

Voting will be April.

2-Our guest potter for the evening was Wei Sun.
